

Student Grievance Redressal Committee

Objective

- Promoting a harmonious and respectful environment in the College by fostering positive Student-Student and Student-Teacher relationships.
- Encouraging students to freely express grievances or concerns without fear of retaliation.
- A suggestion/complaint box is available for anonymous submissions, allowing students to share feedback for improvements in academics and administration.
- Students are advised to respect each other's dignity, demonstrate patience, and resolve conflicts peacefully.

Roles and responsibilities

- Establish a transparent system to address complaints from students, faculty, and support staff, promoting transparency and democratic values.
- Develop a working mechanism in consultation with the head of the institute, following AICTE/MSBTE guidelines.
- Providing a platform for students to express their concerns without fear of retaliation or victimization.
- Maintain records and hold periodic meetings as needed.
- Provide regular reports to the head of the institute on resources, systems, and outcomes.
